

The American Songbook Concert

Sunday, June 11, 2017

5:30PM

Woodward Chapel, Watertown

The Waterbury Symphony Orchestra is very excited to present the American Songbook Project, which will take place on June 11, 2017 at Taft School's Woodward Chapel, 25 the Green in Watertown, CT. The culmination of an intensive weekend long workshop, a half dozen talented young singers will be coached in great songs from the 1920's, 30's, 40's, and 50's which are known collectively as "The Great American Songbook." The concert will take place on Sunday, June 11 at 5:30PM at Woodward Chapel, in a Cabaret showcase featuring teachers and students in performance of the songs learned during the weekend. This exciting event is made possible through the generosity of Norman S. Drubner, who will serve as master of ceremonies for the final showcase.

Free to the Public!

Taft School's Woodward Chapel
25 the Green, Watertown, CT

The American Songbook Project