

SAVE THE DATE

October 27, 2016

5:00–8:00 PM

Mattatuck Museum

Bernstein meets BRAVO!

Join the WSO as we kick off our 5th year of Bravo Waterbury! with special guest Jamie Bernstein. Jamie Bernstein, daughter of legendary conductor and composer Leonard Bernstein has produced and directed Crescendo, The Power of Music and is a leading advocate of social change through music. Ms. Bernstein will host the screening of Crescendo in the company of Calida Jones, Artistic Director of Bravo Waterbury! and Leif Bjaland, Music Director of the Waterbury Symphony Orchestra. Students and staff of Bravo will showcase their amazing work. Come enjoy an evening demonstrating how music can fuel social change. Be part of this powerful educational initiative.

Date: October 27, Thursday 5:00-8:00 PM

Tickets: $35—Light Dinner, Bravo Performance, Crescendo Screening and Panel Discussion

Location: Mattatuck Museum, 144 W Main St, Waterbury, CT 06702

Reservation: 203-574-4283 • waterburysymphony.org

Bravo Waterbury!
Playing Music, Building Futures

WATERBURY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Not able to attend Bernstein meets Bravo, but would like to support the program?
Make a tax-deductible gift to insure the continuation of an amazing educational program.
Make your check payable to Waterbury Symphony Orchestra, P.O. Box 1762, Waterbury, CT 06721.
Or make a secure donation at bravowaterbury.org/donate/

Playing Music, Building Futures